CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack
Parent / Student-Athlete Code of Conduct

All parents and student-athletes are required to sign this contract, which identifies the expectations for all participants of CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack.

Parent Code of Conduct

1. I will respect the coaches and their decisions, understanding this is competitive basketball and coaches will attempt to balance player development with team competitiveness.
2. I will not enter the court at any time during practice, scrimmage or games unless requested to do so by the coach.
3. I will not verbally or physically abuse, confront, taunt, harass, or demean a coach, referee, student-athlete, parent, fan of our team or an opposing team, at any time.
4. I will not use inappropriate or vulgar language at any CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack.k activity.
5. I will not consume illegal substances before or at the activity, or possess any illegal substances at CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack. activities.
6. I will not consume or possess alcohol at CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack. activities.
7. If I have questions regarding playing time, line-ups, positions, or rotations, I understand there must be a 48-hour cooling off period after an events completion, which I may contact the Coach and Director.
8. I understand parents may not coach their own child or other student-athletes from the sidelines or anywhere else during practices, scrimmages and games.
9. I will follow the "chain of command" when lodging complaints:
    a. Student-athletes in grades 7 and above should initiate contact with their coach directly regarding playing time
    b. If the student-athlete/coach meeting does not resolve the concern, a meeting will be scheduled with the parents, student-athlete, coach and a Basketball Manager/Director.
    c. All other issues should be directed to the coach first and then the Director Manager/Director if not resolved by the coach.
10. I will not conspire with other parents to undermine the authority of any coach or the program.
11. I will make every effort to allow my child to attend all practices, games, skill sessions, scrimmages, tournaments and other team functions. I will notify the coach in advance if my child has a conflict and will not be able to attend an activity.
12. If your child is removed from the CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack. team for any of the above reasons
    NO REFUND WILL BE GIVEN

Student-Athlete Code of Conduct

1. I will abide by all rules set by all tournament operators, Carolina Courts or other governing body.
2. I will follow all team rules, including good attendance, maintaining a positive attitude, and respecting teammates, coaches, referees and opponents.
3. I will maintain good grades and attendance in school. I understand I am a student-athlete and "student" comes before "athlete."
4. I will not at any time use inappropriate or vulgar language, smoke, consume, or possess alcohol or illegal substances.
5. I will always give my best effort and sportsmanship in games, scrimmages and practices.
6. CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack. players are expected to be dedicated to our teams and our program as a whole. I will not participate in other travel programs/teams events, practices, or team functions during our current season.

Parent Financial Responsibility

1. I understand that CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack. strives to keep its costs low and generally charges registration fees that are significantly less than competing programs. I also understand that our program is dependent on timely payment of registration fees from its players to pay for team tournament/registration fees, coach's stipends and travel costs, uniforms, practice facility usage, equipment and other costs associated with the team.
2. I am obligated to pay the full amount of the season registration fee prior to participation in the first practice or any games and prior to receipt of my child's uniform.
3. I understand that past-due balances will result in my child not being able to participate in team activities including practices, scrimmages and games until my account is brought into good standing.

Parent and student-athlete signature is required in order for the student-athlete to participate. If a parent or student-athlete fails to fulfill any obligations, or violates the Code of Conduct, the student-athlete may be suspended from participation in their team or in the program, thus preventing the student-athlete from participating in upcoming practices, scrimmage or games. In more severe and/or repeat instances, the student-athlete and parents may be dismissed from CC Elite/Attack365/Lady Attack..
